

THE ELWOOD UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT
PRESENTS

SAFETY FORUM II
Spot Light on Fentanyl
Narcan Training/Distribution

WITH

Suffolk County Police Officer, Jesse Levy
**&
Emergency Medical Service Officer, Jason Byron

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 2023 6:00-7:30 PM

Elwood-John H. Glenn High School Performing Arts Center
478 Elwood Road, Elwood, NY

---

Eight-year veteran law enforcement officer and previous Physical Education and Health teacher, Police Officer Jesse Levy, will provide information on how opioids affect our communities and what the SCPD has seen throughout Suffolk County.

Jason Byron, a twenty-year veteran Emergency Medical Service Officer, is responsible for training all Suffolk County Police Officers in becoming EMT's. EMS Officer Byron will explain how Narcan works, how to administer Narcan, and then certify and issue a Narcan (one per household) to any adult in attendance who has pre-registered (prior to the deadline) for this Safety Forum.

To Register use the QR Code :

Registration Deadline: Friday, April 14, 2023

For Harley/Boyd Parents: For your attendance, your child(ren) will receive a free homework pass

For EMS/JGHS Parents: For your attendance, your child(ren) will receive community service hours

ALL ARE WELCOME

Suggested Audience: Parents/Community Members
Students in Grades 6-12